COLLEGE STUDENTS AND GAMBLING

Gambling among college students has become increasingly popular, largely due to televised Texas Hold’Em tournaments, and increased accessibility and availability of gambling opportunities on the Internet.

Additionally, the availability of financial credit to college students can result in significant bank and credit card company debt.

Students may gamble on campus, at a friend’s house, at nearby casinos, racetracks and other gambling venues. Gambling today is more accessible, more accepted and more glamorized than ever before, but can lead to serious consequences for college-age gamblers.

REASONS STUDENTS GAMBLE

- Chance to win money
- Excitement of placing a bet
- Spend time with friends
- Distraction from everyday life
- Belief it is an easy way to get rich quick
- Acceptance among their peers
- To feel the “rush” of winning
- To feel important

WARNING SIGNS OF PROBLEM GAMBLING

- Thinks constantly about gambling
- Relies on others to get out of debt
- Is absent or late for work or school due to gambling
- Has unexplained money or new possessions
- Is impatient with or ignores friends and family
- Delays or does not make payment of bills including college tuition

CONSEQUENCES

- Isolation
- Drop out of school or risk academic and athletic scholarships for a perceived chance at a better future by gambling
- Experience serious financial and inter-personal difficulties due to gambling
- Experience thoughts of suicide
