

SBIRT Materials Order Form

Ship To:

Customer Name:
Company Name (If Applicable):
Street Address:
City, State, Zip:
Phone:

OASAS Contact	Email
SBIRT Mailbox	SBIRTNY@oasas.ny.gov

QTY	Item	Description
	Word Bubble Poster	11x17 "Our Task is To Ask" poster containing a word bubble: recommended for youth/young adult settings
	Helping Hand Poster	11x17 "Our Task is To Ask" poster containing a Caucasian clinician extending a helping hand: recommended for clinical settings
	Question Mark Poster	11x17 "Our Task is To Ask" poster containing an African American clinician holding a question mark: recommended for clinical settings
	Patient Brochure	Multi-fold "Our Task is to Ask" brochure containing drinker's pyramid, standard drink sizes, low-risk drinking limits, and consequences of excessive alcohol use
	Practitioner Card	Laminated pocket card for practitioners. Front: Drinker's pyramid, standard drink sizes, low-risk drinking limits, readiness ruler. Back: Risk scoring for AUDIT, DAST and CRAFFT, outline or "cheat sheet" for the brief negotiated interview process.
	"We Ask Everyone" Flyer	Black ink. Purple pen with "Our Task is to Ask" logo.
	"Rethinking Drinking-Alcohol and your health"	16-page booklet with intervention workbook for patients (English and Spanish versions available)
	Practitioner Brochure	Four-page, double-sided brochure for practitioners and/or administrators. Provides description of Screening, Brief Intervention and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT), statistics and supporting evidence/research.
	Administrative Flyer	One-page flyer for administrators. Provides brief description of SBIRT, why SBIRT is important and evidence supporting SBIRT's cost-savings and cost-effectiveness.

